SENATE JOURNAL
EXTRA SESSION
FEBRUARY 1982

FIRST DAY

SENATE CHAMBER,
Tuesday, February 9, 1982

In accordance with law, as set forth in the Constitution of the State of North Carolina and pursuant to the Proclamation issued by the Governor on February 2, 1982, the Senate of the North Carolina General Assembly convenes in Extra Session at the hour of 10:00 A.M. in the Senate Chamber of the State Legislative Building in the City of Raleigh.

The Honorable James C. Green, Lieutenant Governor, presides and calls the Senate to order.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Claude Godwin, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"We stand before you this day, O God, with the visible symbols of our disunity apparent for all to see. We are male and female, black and white, old and young, Republican and Democrat, liberal and conservative, inhabitants of mountain valleys and coastal basins, dwellers in crowded cities and lonely farms. As we gather to do the work of this Body, only our comon allegiance to the good of this State and our common bond to each other as your children can raise us above the petty demands of class, race, neighborhood and Party. Keep these twin beacons of unity ever before us, calling us to be faithful and effective representatives of the best intentions of those who elected us. Amen."

Led by the Lieutenant Governor, the Senators and guests remain standing and pledge their allegiance to the United States of America.

The President lays before the Senate the Proclamation by the Governor, James B. Hunt, Jr., issued February 2, 1982, as follows:

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

James B. Hunt, Jr.

STATEMENT
by
JAMES C. GREEN
President of the Senate

February 9, 1982

"I want to take this opportunity to stress to you, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, that we have a very important task before us and that is to properly redistrict the State to reflect the 1980 census. We elected officials owe it to all North Carolinians—whatever their race and whatever their political affiliation—to resolve this problem as quickly and as fairly as possible.

"You know I have a great deal of faith in each and every member of the North Carolina General Assembly and I know that we will do this important job well. We must redistrict the State ourselves to avoid conflicts with the U.S. Justice Department and the federal courts. It is in the best interest of each member here to assume this responsibility as you are the elected representatives of the people for whom this action is required. I realize that this is not an easy task, but I do have every confidence that you will do what is best for the people of North Carolina."

SENATE JOURNAL
EXTRA SESSION
APRIL 1982

FIRST DAY

SENATE CHAMBER,
Monday, April 26, 1982.

In accordance with law, as set forth in the Constitution of the State of North Carolina, and pursuant to the Proclamation issued by the Governor on April 23, 1982, the Senate of the North Carolina General Assembly convenes in Extra Session at the hour of 8:00 P.M. in the Senate Chamber of the State Legislative Building in the City of Raleigh.

The Honorable James C. Green, Lieutenant Governor, presides and calls the Senate to order.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Claude Godwin, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"God Our Father, once more we find ourselves brought together in this place. On this occasion there is less joy than usual in gathering together, and some concern among us about our ability to do Your will. Tonight we understand the words of Your servant Paul when he said 'The good that I would do, I do not, and the evil I would not do, that is what I do.' Our best intentions, our brightest dreams so often are not enough, for we founder and fail on our own humanity. Yet it is our hope, our faith, our trust that You take our feeble efforts and bend them to Your will. Somehow, by Your Spirit, miracles of justice are accomplished by a people, who, left to our own devices would not do justice. Our prayer this night is that You will make the flame of Your Spirit burn strong and bright in this room, consuming what is evil in us and refining what is best that we may indeed be Your servants—chosen, called, elected and enabled to do Your will. Amen."

Led by the Lieutenant Governor, the Senators and guests remain standing and pledge their allegiance to the United States of America.

The President lays before the Senate the Proclamation by the Governor, James B. Hunt, Jr., issued April 23, 1982, as follows:

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

WHEREAS, it is in the best interests of the State of North Carolina that an Extra Session of the General Assembly be convened as soon as is practicable;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, James B. Hunt, Jr., Governor of the State of North Carolina, under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by Article III, Section 5(7) of the Constitution of North Carolina, do, by and with the advice of the Council of State, proclaim that the General Assembly of North Carolina shall meet in Extra Session at Raleigh at 8:00 P.M., Monday, April 26, 1982, for the purpose of considering and acting upon legislation concerning the apportionment of the North Carolina House of Representatives and the North Carolina Senate and conforming changes in the election laws and the primary election schedule.

"God of Peace, as we gather here in the pursuit of justice for Your people in this State and Nation, we are acutely conscious of brothers and sisters in other parts of the world who are living under the threat of immediate war. As we pray for a just and lasting solution to their conflict, use this occasion to remind us of our own aggressive natures, and the need for peace in the many arenas of our lives—in our homes, in political disagreements, in commerce, between nations. Teach us, by Your Spirit, how to look beyond selfish advantage to discover the common good of Your whole creation. In that discovery, may we find the Shalom of the people of God, promised by the prophets and eagerly awaited in the advent of Your Kingdom. Amen."

APPENDIX

EXTRA SESSION 1982

STATEMENT OF SENATOR RAUCH (April 26, 1982)

Mr. President, members of the Senate, we all know that we are here because we have a problem with our redistricting. I have gone over this with our staff, I have gone over this with some of the members of the Senate, and without a doubt this problem should be resolved by the Senate. No one person, no group of a few people should attempt to resolve the problem. However, as Chairman of the Senate Redistricting Committee, I will attempt to give us a direction and then the Senate can do what it wants to do. I am only attempting to give us a direction.

For those of you who have not followed this as closely as others, at this point it appears to me that we have three options.

The first option would be to appeal the adverse ruling by the Department of Justice to the district court in Washington, D.C., that is an option. The problem as I see that is we don't know how much time it will take. We might win, we might lose, we don't know how much time it would take. We have lots of people who are waiting for and looking for the primary.

A second option would be to go to the Federal District Court in Raleigh and ask that a temporary plan be approved. What that temporary plan would be—maybe it is the plan we have just passed and had turned down in Washington—maybe it is the plan that we were all elected on. The problem there is time and, also, you haven't solved the problem—you have just postponed the problem. The position that I like, and I will tell you that, and I am going to take a stand for it and I will make a motion in a little while.

The third option, as I see it, is to go along with the federal government—which has asked that we change our Second District to fifty-five percent (55%) or over Black, and on which our Washington attorney, the consultant that we hired, Mr. Leonard, has informed us that we would get a ruling in four days from the Justice Department after submission. Four days after we submit it, we will get a ruling—he has an informal agreement with them that we will get a ruling in four days after we submit it back to Justice.

The change that they asked for is that the Second District be fifty-five percent (55%) Black or more; and in doing this we can set our primary statewide for June 10 and we can have our legislative session June 14.

Please if you bear with me, I will give you those three options quickly again.

The first is appeal to the Justice Department in Washington.

The second is go to the local federal district court.

The third is to do what the federal government has asked us to do.

And please let me point out that first, our staff told us to do it. Second, the Attorney General's Office told us to do it, third we hired Leonard, the consultant from Washington. They told us to do it and now the feds have rejected our plan and told us to do it. They have really only asked—or demanded, if you want, but it's our government—one thing, that we make the Black, the Second District, fifty-five percent (55%) Black or more; and we will have a ruling within four days and the primary can be held June 10 and the session June 14.

So, in order to put it in front of you, I have here a blank bill. This is nothing but our present Districts as we decided them in our last meeting and in order to get it in front of you and give you a chance to debate the entire situation, I will move, Mr. President, that the rules be suspended so I can send forward this bill. That puts the matter in front of you—I want you all to debate it and then you will let your Committee decide.

Now when we go to—if you pass this and if the Lieutenant Governor sends it to Committee, it would be my intention to start with the Committee meeting this evening and I have no bill—I have no mat that I am married to—we will permit every legislator on the Committee or not on the Committee to come before us and speak. We want every one of you to have input.

among the women and men of this Senate, empowering them with Holy Spirit for the work they have been given to do. We confess, O Lord, that we fall short not only of Your highest expectations of us, but often even of common decency to each other. Forgive short tempers, prejudice, and power politics more interested in winning than in serving the people. Help us as citizens, as legislators, as employees of this State, to rise above self-interest and discover and do Your will for us as a people. Amen."

For some, the issues seem simple, the choices clear, but for most of us, when we are honest with ourselves, claims of simplicity and clarity do not ring true. Do not let us suffer from a paralysis of analysis, but keep us honest enough to admit our doubts, to find the germ of truth in our opponents' arguments, to leave our options open to the leading of Your Spirit. We confess, O God, our need for Your help. Grant us wisdom, grant us courage, for the living of these days. Amen."

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Claude Godwin, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"God, our Father, as we gather in Your presence this night, we are thankful for the weekend just past, for its opportunities of refreshment, rest, and worship, and for the chance to be ourselves rather than the public persons we must show to the world on other days. We are also thankful for Mondays, a day that is cursed by many, but which, nonetheless holds many joys for us. Monday is for new beginnings, for forgetting the past and working toward new goals. Monday reminds us inexorably of work—and yet it is in our work that we find meaning and purpose in life. Monday also reminds us of the cycle of life, that existence ebbs and flows so that those of us who are less than swift may have another chance to catch the rising tide in the affairs of men. We give You thanks for Monday, O Lord, and pray that You will make us Your faithful servants on this day and on every day that we may give honor and praise to You in all that we do. Amen."

SENATE CHAMBER,
Tuesday, June 15, 1982.

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable James C. Green, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend James B. Tubbs, Pastor of St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, as follows:

"Our Father, and our God, we come to You — not as travelers asking directions from a traffic policeman in a strange city — but as children come to their father or mother seeking assurance of Your loving care and concern for us. This is the sacred quest of our approach, to make sure we are wards of a King, the very children of Jehovah God.

"And with that assurance, we pledge in love, our loyalty to You, seeking only to do Your perfect will for these people whom we serve in Your name. Brush the cobwebs from our minds, quicken our consciences, sharpen our wits, and move our wills to properly reflect that which is pure and just and right. Amen."

Senator Lawing for the Rules and Operation of the Senate Committee announces that the Journal of yesterday has been examined and is found to be correct, and on his motion the reading of the Journal is dispensed with and it stands approved as written.

REMARKS OF MINISTER BARRY JOHN McKINNON OF AUSTRALIA

Mr. Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate, Members of the Senate of North Carolina, the members of the gallery, ladies and gentlemen:

Firstly, I'd like to thank you, Mr. President, for the invitation to address you here today and also to thank the people of North Carolina for the hospitality they've extended to me whilst I have been here.

In Western Australia — in Australia — the State of Australia, I am a member of our State Legislature and in our system of government called a parliamentary system, I am a minister — responsible for various areas. I guess because of that, your federal government, under what they have termed the International Visitor Program, invited me to visit the United States for thirty days and as a consequence I am now here.

I wanted whilst I was in the United States to visit North Carolina. Your reputation as far as a State being very progressive in industrial development and new technology, and search for new technology, and high technology industries is well-known in Australia and as a consequence I very much wanted to say that.

It also was interesting to me in my time in America, and I must say I've only been to Hawaii, New York, Washington and now North Carolina, to make a comparison between our two great countries. Firstly, there's differences, of course, and some of these between my state and yours, is the question of size. Our State is three and a half times bigger than Texas. As I said to the members of your House, I love telling Texans that one. They never believe you, of course, but it is. There are only one point two million people in our State, unlike yours, which is about six million, and many, many smaller cities. We have a heavy concentration of people in one city, the City of Perth, that I live in, that has about eight hundred to nine hundred thousand people.

Our industries are different though similar in some respects. We have a very strong farming and rural community, as you have, although that rural community is based on wheat and sheep. We have a very big industry now. If you look at this month's issue of National Geographic, you will see the big industry in photos of the live sheep exporters. We do have shipping sheep live to the Middle East and that's an increasingly important industry to ourselves.

The balance of our industry and our industrial base in our State is based on resource development — in other words, the resources of iron ore, bauxite, uranium, gold, and diamonds that are very prevalent in our State and we are looking to an increasing initiative in this area to give our State industrial growth. But, I, of course, as Minister for Industrial Development, are looking more to initiatives in the new high technology industries which I believe are the industries of the future, if we are to have a future.

The similarities, however, between our two states and our two countries, I believe, are more similar. Our rights or should I say the differences and, in fact, that was highlighted to me when I arrived in Raleigh on Monday evening and saw the teachers on the steps of your Legislature protesting and I thought they must have come from Australia, because they are all protesting on the steps of Parliament House in Western Australia for the very same reasons — that is federal cutbacks and state cutbacks.

We, of course, face as you do, a greater demand for government services and at the same time a demand for lesser taxation. You cannot have both and so we find, as legislatures, as you do, a great difficulty in meeting both demands at once, and as a consequence have many lobbyists and pressure groups trying to get us to change our minds.

We also of course, have similarities in that we have two houses of parliament and as I heard in the House of Representatives here they believe they are the best house and I am sure that you believe that you are the best house and that's just the same back home.

I was interested, also, of course to hear a great debate on fox hunting — we have foxes in Australia and I can assure you that when we have debate on either foxes or kangaroo control, for that matter, that we have very great debates. Many people, of course, believe that we should be protecting kangaroos for many, many reasons but I can assure you that there is about, I think, ten times more kangaroos in Australia than people. So we don't have too much to worry about from that point of view.

Mr. President, I wanted to finish this saying thank you once again for the time you have given me — thanking the people of the United States for the opportunity that they have given me personally to learn more about your country and you, particularly, about your State and I finish by saying I believe we do have a great commonality of interest as nations in that we are great democracies and that we do believe in the protection of the freedom of our individuals and I hope that that ever remains so and that we can remain allies, colleagues, and friends for an awful long time to come.

Thank you very much, Mr. President.

(NOTE: Australian Ministers are comparable to United States Congressmen)
